9. QUESTION: (INCLUDE SCENARIO IF NEEDED FOR CLARITY):

A full-time student, who participated in federal work study during the 2012-13 school year, is on summer break for several months. He intends to return to school full time during the fall semester of the 2013-14 school year. Financial aid has not been awarded yet.

"Once a student enrolls in an institution of higher education, such enrollment shall be deemed to continue through normal periods of class attendance, vacation and recess unless the student graduates, is suspended or expelled or drops out." (MPP 63-406.22)

Are students who normally are exempt during the school year able to receive CalFresh benefits during their summer break?

10. REQUESTOR'S PROPOSED ANSWER:

** Proposed answer: The student must have an exemption during the summer that fulfills the requirements listed in MPP 63-406.2. **

"The (work study) exemption shall not continue between terms when there is a break of a full month or longer unless the student is participating in work study during the break." (MPP 63-406.212)

"If an applicant states that he does not intend to register for an upcoming term at least half time... CWDs may not assume that he will in fact be attending school and determine him to be ineligible." (I-36-12)

11. STATE POLICY RESPONSE (CFPB USE ONLY):

Based on the information provided, the student is not enrolled in class during the summer and does not need to meet the exemptions needed to be on CalFresh during the school year. Per MPP 63-406.12, as the student is not enrolled at least half-time, they would not be subject to the student eligibility requirements listed in MPP 63-406.11.

Updated Response (August 31, 2015). The above response is incorrect. ACIN I-36-12 addresses circumstances in which the applicant specifically states that they do not intend to return to school. In the scenario described above, the applicant has stated his intent to return to school in the fall. Therefore, as stated in MPP 63-406.22 this applicant would be considered an ineligible student unless he satisfies one of the student exemptions listed in MPP 63-406.21.
